PUBLIC-SPIRITED CITIZENS OF WASHINGTON WHO HAVE ARRANGED FOR GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT---OFFICERS OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE AND CHAIRMEN OF SUBCOMMITTEES.

CITY KEEPS PLEDGE TO THE GRAND ARMY

Nation's Capital Ready to Enteriain the War Veterans of 1861-65.

THOSE WHO HAD CHARGE OF THE REUNION PLANS

Pusiness Men Solicitous for the Comfort and Fleasure of Washington's Guests

Washington has kept its pledge to

The National Capital, ideally fitted by nature to be a convention city for the more than 600 leading citizens co-operating to place Washington in readiness to give the fast depleting ranks of the mation's detenders of 1861-65 such a welcome, such comfort and entertainment as no other place in all the coun-When Col. John McElroy last year in Detroit read to the Grand Army enthe Sittletia anniversary celebration of in 1802 and 1992 and they promptly

Washington's successful preparation the forty-niath encomponent of the C. A. R. is due in large measure to the efficient general supervision of William F. Gode as chairman of the citizens' equitive committee. Mr. Gude is one of Washington's active and influential business men, and in planning for this manage the financial and business end patriolic jubiles celebration he has inde.

The is a mason of high degree, and his are appears upon the roll of officers and members in fifty-three important taternities and associations in the listific of Columbia. Instrict of Columbia.

keeping track of the many details of varied arrangements for the encampment here. All this has been done in addition to his regular work as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and without any additional compensation.

Mr. Grant is best known to business leaders throughout the country for his work in bringing convention to this nature to be a convention city for the entire country, has been put in shape to meet all the peculiar needs of such an eccasion as a Grand Army encampment.

E.H. DROOP, Music.

The work for many months past of the work for many months past of the chamber of commerce. He is a member of nearly every fraternal organization in Washington, and is prominent as a thirty-third degree Mason.

Two Active Assistants.

C. J. Gockeler, treasurer of the executive committee, has for years ben an active member in commercial and elvic could give them, has been effective, affairs. He is chairman of the joint hen Cal Livin April 19 of the country bodies, secretary of the Washington Board of Trade and director of the Discamped there the invitation of the Washington civic and trade associations, urging them to come here for fund in the capital for the relief of the women and children in Belgium, and is the grand review of 1865, the veterans women and chairman of the financial recalled the cordiality and comforts committee for the benefit to be given that had been extended to them here for the military bands that have fur-nished concerts in the parks during the in 18.2 and 1892 and they promptly accepted the invitation.

Singled that this is the Grand Army fin he year, and that it is douotiess the last time the dimming, faded line of the will ever march down Pennayl varian avenue, the clittens of Washington have done their best to show the last reference to the critical architecture of the Grand Army encampment defense of the Union are still deeply appreciated in the capital of the nation incomplete the very death to hold intact.

Men Who Planned for Reunion.

Weshington's successful preparation

Weshington's successful preparation

offices in this organization as and submitted it to Co. David J. Palmas in the Washington Board of er, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.,

He also planned the reunions of the Committee Secretary.

Thomas J. Grant, secretary of the executive committee of citizens, has ranging for them the details of their ranging for them the details of their semi-centennial reunion in Washington.

He also planned the reunions of the pleted arrangements for a diversified program of enjoyable events, among Co. Co. Na. Washington.

TOWNLEY MC KEE.
HOTELS. EDMONSTON

He was one of the first group of pris-oners for whom the doors of Anderson-ville were opened. In Charge of Review Stands. The reviewing stand in front of the White House, from which President Wilson will review the parade, standing on the same spot on which Presntertainment of the veterans.

During the absence of Chairman Gude
if the Panama-Pacific exposition Mr

W.T. GALLIHER,

BADGES & SOUVENIRS

Mashington's active and influential to inex men, and in planning for this patients men, and in planning for this patients men, and in planning for this of the encampment.

Col. McElroy's Service.

Col. McElroy's Service.

Upon the shoulders of Col. John McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment of the work of staging the encampment. Col. McElroy fell a great volume of the work of staging the encampment of the work of the work of staging the encampment of the work of the w with Emott woods, and invented the oval stand now in use.

This year he has introduced another innovation at the President's reviewing stand, putting all the entrances from the rear, so that there will be no obstruction of the view of those occupying places in the stand.

Plans the Entertainments. Dr. Frank E. Gibson, chairman of the entertainment committee, has com-pleted arrangements for a diversified

0

W.V. Cox.

LEGISLATION.

HARRIS CHING PORCE

C.J.GOCKELER, TREASURERS.

ARTHUR C.Moses

DOY SCOUTS

in the Potomac river near the Highway bridge at noon Monday, searchlight drills aboard the vessels, wireless telegraphy demonstrations, ambulance and litter drills and a number of other events of particular interest to the veterans and visitors.

Dr. Gibson has seen previous encampments experience, for he was in charge of the medical committee during the G.
A. R. encampment here in 1902. He was chairman of the entertainment committee for the world congress on hygiene and demography, which met here in 1911. He is noted throughout the entire country as a Masonic drillmaster.

Marking Historic Sites.

More than 300 historic sites in and around Washington have been marked with bronze signs by W. P. Van Wickle and the members of his committee. In addition, the cammittee has compiled a booklet of several hundred pages describing places of note in the nation's capital and containing many illustrations, visualizing conditions in the capital a half century ago.

Mr. Van Wickle performed this important work for the first time when these shrines in the nation's capital were located and designated for the Grand Army encampment in 1902, and has been chairman of a committee doing similar work for each inauguration since then. He was secretary of the Admiral Dewey celebration here on the return of the hero of Manila bay. He also was secretary of the centennial celebration in 1900, and also chairman of the badge committee.

For many years he was treasurer of the Board of Trade and one of its directors, He is a long-time member of Columbia Historical Society and the National Geographic Society Mr. Van Wickle is a member of Lafayette Lodge, of Massns, Mount Vernon Chapter, R. A. M., Washington Commandery, Knights

MRS.WEANDREWS A.LETTWICHSINCLAIR

LADIES COM.

ACCOMMODATIONS

ECBRANDENBURG, J. HARRY COMMINGHAM,

RECEPTION.

connected with many fraternal and charitable organizations. Templar, and is one of the best known and most active trade boomers in Wash-

PRINTING

HCC STILES

D. J. CALLAHAN,

@ INVITATION

Publicity Committee Chairman. Leader of City's Protectors.

TRABBRORTATION

Through the efforts of Frank B. Lord, Protection of the public has been one chairman of the publicity committee of the hobbies of Maj. Raymond Pullwho had a number of local newspaper man, superintendent of metropolitan men and correspondents asso police. He is the youngest man who with him, the encampment has been has ever been appointed to this posi- given nation-wide publicity. The illushas ever been appointed to this posi-tion in this city. While a newspaper trated articles which have appeared in reporter Maj. Pullman became internewspapers throughout the country ested in police matters, and made a have heightened interest in the reunion study of the work of the force not only study of the work of the force not only and have attracted thousands of guests. In this city, but in many other cities in the country, and when he assumed has included the preparation and sendthe country, and when he assumed command of the local protection forces ing out to newspapers all over the United States of special feature stories United States of special feature stories in regard to the encampment, and of specially prepared matrices ready to be cast into pages for the use of newspapers. The committee's work has attracted attention from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Mr. Lord, chairman of the committee, is president of the National Press Club He has at diffrent times been employed by the Hearst service, as correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, New York Sun and other papers, and is now a special writer for the National Magazine. he was well fortified with data as to how the hig police forces in other

HARRY STANDIFORD DIRECTOR GENERAL

Matthew G. Emery, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

day and Friday evenings.

Col. Royce has had wide experience in Grand Army encampments. He has attended thirty-three previous encampments of the Grand Army and knows pared as a souvenir of the encampment, was the result of the efforts of the committee on printing, which also had been prominent in Grand Army affairs, baying been department commander in for the encampment. H. C. C. Stiles is having been department commander in 1880 and junior vice commander-inchief in 1908. In addition to these high offices he has hald numerous other positions in the G. A. R. In addition to being chairman of the camp fire committee, Col. Royce is also chairman of the was a director of the Camp Emery dedication committee.

Chairman of Women's Committee.

Chairman of Women's Committee.

Mrs. W. E. Andrews is chairman of the encampment. H. C. C. Stiles is chairman of the committee. Mr. Stiles has for several years been connected with an important branch of the printing and publishing business.

He was a director of the Chamber of Commerce for four years, and has been an active worker both in this organization and the Board of Trade. He has served on various committees of both these trade organizations.

Mrs. W. E. Andrews is chairman of the women's committee and has as her assistants committees appointed by the chairme nof the various local organizations. Besides this, Mrs. Andrews has appointed a large committee of distinguished women known in both social and official life and official life.

Mrs. Andrews, who is the wife of William E. Andrews of Nebraska, for eighteen years auditor of the Treasury Department, has long been an active figure in both the official and social life of Washington. She has been a resident of Washington since her husband made his appearance in official life as a member of the lower house of Congress from Nebraska, since which time she has won Washington applause of the later of the lower house of Congress from Nebraska, since which time the has won Washington applause of the later of the later of the lower house of Congress from Nebraska, since which time the later of the later legislative committee, has a wide experience in international, national and in 1879 to accept a place in the Smith nected officially with fourteen national and international expositions.

He has served as chairman on score of committees having to do with civil affairs. He was treasurer of the na-

work of Medical Men.

Work of Medical Men.

The medical committee, with Dr.
Lewis J. Battle as chairman, has made provision for giving prompt attention to all veterans and visitors who may be taken ill or receive injuries. Hospitals have been established on the White Lot, in Union station and Camp Emery. On the day of the parade fourteen ambulance stations will be established along Pennsylvania avenue. The lighted along Pennsylvania avenue along Pennsylvania avenue. The lighted along Pennsylvania avenue along Pennsylvania avenue. The lighted along Pennsylvania avenue alo

Emery, Mr. Cox performed a very important service in obtaining the use of the old census building, which is to be dedicated tomorrow for the activities Marshals the Boy Scouts.

C. Moses, chairman of the Boy Scout committee, has arranged to fur-nish 1,000 Boy Scouts, the entire force f the District, to act as guides, messengers, escorts and companions for the aged veterans throughout the encamp-Wilson inauguration, rendering con-spicuous first aid and police service and making themselves generally use-ful and indispensable.

Arranges for Transportation.

Arrangements for railroad transportation, and the obtaining of reduced rates and other concessions by the rail-roads of the country, have been in charge of the transportation committee, of which J. Harry Cunningham is medical and surgical apparatus in the surgeon general's department.

Veteran Plans Campfires.

Col. C. C. Royce, chairman of the committee on campfires, has arranged three big events to be staged in Camp Matthew G. Emery, Wednesday, Thurstee.

for the encampment. H. C. C. Stiles is Member of Executive Board.

Lending the workingman a helping hand has taken a great amount of the time of P. T. Moran, a member of the executive board of the G. A. R. encampment. He is the originator of the campaign to find employment for all of the

she has won Wash ngton applause of her laudable and progressive work as a club woman, and still more particularly in her work as an educator, in which capacity she has served in college for women in her native state and in this city.

Looks After Legislation.

William V. Cox, chairman of the legislative committee has a wide evaments.

Reception Committee Chairman.

E. C. Brandenburg, who is chairman of the reception committee and a mem-ber of the executive committee, for a number of years has been interested in the District's welfare, giving his time the District's welfare, giving his time and energy to civic matters. As a member and a director of the Washington Board of Trade for a number of years, and now its president, he has done much to improve the city and make it attractive to the outsiders as well as those who live within its borders. He is one of the leaders in the movement to improve the taxation methods in this city, and has given a good deal of his time in the interest of the preservation of the half-and-half system, the death of which has been threatened by Congress.

Mr. Brandenburg is prominent in Masonry, being a past master of Hiram Lorder. By profession he is a lawyer.